

Child First Collaboration

What you can expect from your Youth Justice Service

Your youth justice worker will ask you for your views about your goals and interests, listen to your ideas and take them into account when developing your support and interventions

Your youth justice plan will be based on your goals and ideas, written with your youth justice worker. You will be offered a real choice of activities that meet your needs and interests

Your support and intervention plan will look forward so you can get on with your life

Your youth justice worker will be kind and supportive and won't use power and control over you

Your youth justice sessions will be in comfortable venues that take account of your needs and create a positive atmosphere. You will be given a choice of where you would like to meet them

For more information contact:

Professor Stephen Case: s.case@lboro.ac.uk

Dr Kathy Hampson: kah47@aber.ac.uk