*if not then an O OCD is not suitable

Child Centred Policing: All children should be treated as children first in every encounter

Panel

The Panel is a police and YOT joint decision making group, which reviews cases that are referred to them for consideration of an O OCD and makes a decision as to the most suitable and appropriate outcome, with an emphasis on interventions to help address offending behaviour.

Where agreement cannot be reached, the decision should be escalated to the police SMT Youth Lead and YOT Head of Service.
