

Young people and stakeholders perceptions of pathways into crime and violence

Infographic produced by

Research funded by

Young people and stakeholders perceptions of pathways out of crime and violence

Case Management

STAKEHOLDERS
Good relationships, strengths-based and whole-family approach, restorative justice, early intervention, diversion

YOUNG PEOPLE
Good relationships

Accommodation

STAKEHOLDERS
Stable, high-quality and secure housing, having pride in where you live

Education & Employment

STAKEHOLDERS
Alternatives to mainstream education, apprenticeship and vocational opportunities, having a daily structure

YOUNG PEOPLE
Route to earning a legitimate income and happiness

Friends & Family

STAKEHOLDERS
Pro-social support networks, discipline, routine and boundaries for children

YOUNG PEOPLE
Supportive family members, being in a relationship

Finance & Benefits / Debt

STAKEHOLDERS
Planning for the long-term, investment in deprived areas

YOUNG PEOPLE
Earning a legitimate income = happiness

Leisure Activities

STAKEHOLDERS
Having fun and socialising in a controlled environment, engaging in meaningful activities, exposure to new experiences and positive role models

Social Media

YOUNG PEOPLE
Feel less socially isolated, discovering music to help manage emotions, learn about what is going on in the world

Community

Infographic produced by

Research funded by

